

Tony and Patsy Cameneti

Tony and Patsy Cameneti have ministered in churches and seminars with an emphasis on prayer, healing, and faith in over thirty nations of the world. Their ministry helps Christians, both ministers and lay people alike, to be more effective for the kingdom of God. The Camenetis currently reside in Australia with their two daughters, Liliana and Annalisa, where they serve as directors of RHEMA Australia.

Tony Cameneti

Tony Cameneti, has traveled throughout the world ministering God's anointed Word in Bible schools, prayer seminars and various conferences. Tony's straight-forward ministry is inspired to purposefully edify and help both ministers and lay people be all that God has called them. With a particular focus on divine healing, his ministry presents the uncompromised Word of God in a way that is practical and do-able. Tony and his wife, Patsy, currently reside in Australia along with their two daughters, Liliana and Annalisa, where they serve as directors of RHEMA Australia.

Patsy Cameneti

Patsy Cameneti's teaching ministry, which began in 1977, remains fresh and new. Patsy's ministry and life are marked by a personal pursuit of God that has inspired many to also develop their own relationship with God in a real and passionate way. Patsy often ministers on the subject of prayer and she co-authored Secrets to Powerful Prayer with Lynne Hammond. She has also written another book on prayer called "For Such A Time As This". Patsy and her husband, Tony, currently reside in Australia along with their two daughters, Liliana and Annalisa, where they serve as directors of RHEMA Australia.
